

The Consulate General of the United States in Casablanca presents its cultural program for July 2013

Theme of the Month:

All about America

The Consulate General of the United States invites you to attend its cultural programming this month, which includes a series of events centered on the theme "All about America."

"We become not a melting pot, but a beautiful mosaic. Different people, different beliefs, different yearnings. Different hopes, different dreams."
-Jimmy Carter

Upcoming Events at Dar America:

Presentation and Discussion

Tuesday, July 2 - 16:00

"All about Washington DC"

Washington DC is the capital city of the United States and home to a diverse group of people with a variety of cultures and interests. Each neighborhood has something different to offer from the percussive jazz music of U Street, to the vibrant dance scene in Columbia Heights, to the academic culture of Georgetown. Join us for a virtual tour of the city from two people who call it their home!

Film Screening and Discussion

Wednesday, July 3 - 16:00

Women's Voices in Morocco

Through rap music, this film brings North Africa back to the U.S. Soultana, a star Moroccan rapper, performs "Women's Voices," and students from Saint Augustine's University in Raleigh, North Carolina participate in an interview with her. Soultana's responses reinforce the optimism of youth in the power of women's expression!

"All about America" Film Series

Each Wednesday (Begins July 10th at 13:00)

This summer, Dar America is launching its summer "All about America" film series. Over the course of 4 weeks, Dar America will screen films that represent different Aspects of American culture and society. The first film, "Smoke Signals," will be shown July 10th.

Reading Club

Every Friday at 15:00

Do you like reading short stories? Do you want to practice your English? Come to meetings of the Dar America Reading Club each Friday at 15:00. Every week we collectively read and discuss an article or short story entirely in English. The club is open to readers of all ages. If you are interested in joining or have any questions please email ShukanAN@state.gov.

Books of the month

Dar America Reads!

Monthly

Each month Dar America selects a group of books that are related to the monthly theme. This month we have selected a series of books about travel and food in the U.S. The books this month highlight the diverse landscape of the country and its rich architectural history. Take a look at our “Books of the Month” display next time you’re in the library!
